

Nancy Jusetsu MacLeod

Contact at 613-820-0768 or setsuflowerart@gmail.com

Nancy is a Second Term Master of the Ohara School and a retired Ontario Trained and certified teacher with over 35 years' experience in public schools in Ontario. All classes can lead to Ohara School certificates based on the Ohara School Curriculum. Students do not have to get certificates

Classes and Workshops are given at Nancy's home studio in Bells Corners (West end of Ottawa)
The studio holds a maximum of 5 students for each class and numbers are often smaller Instructions are given in this small group setting but individual lessons are available by Contacting Nancy directly.

Spring classes 2019

Beginners:

Classes are meant for those with no or very little experience in Japanese Ikebana
These lessons can lead to a Beginners certificate in the Ohara School Curriculum

4 Afternoon Classes—1:30 to 3 pm, Thursdays March 21, March 28, April 4, April 11

4 Evening classes---6 to 8:30 pm---Thursday March 21, March 28, April 4, April 11

4 Evening classes---6 to 8:30 pm---Wednesday March 28, April 4, 11 and 18

Cost is $160 for the any group of 4 lessons that include all use of equipment, containers, photocopied notes, and flowers

Students are asked to supply: a good pair of garden clippers or kitchen shears, small towel
a plastic bag or container to take home flower materials

For students with some experience—instruction can lead to Advanced through Masters level certificates if the student desires. Classes are available on Wednesday and Thursday.

Please contact Nancy for all the details.

Nancy teaches all levels and provides instruction on group and individual basis,

At this level students are encouraged to have all their own supplies

(these can be purchased from Nancy at cost)

Students may borrow specialty containers from the instructor.

Cost is $55 dollars per session and includes all the materials and flowers

Please contact Nancy Directly to register at least 5 days prior to the classes commencing